Event Overview

Has your home become a headache?

Navigating Retirement Living. A seminar for seniors on the move

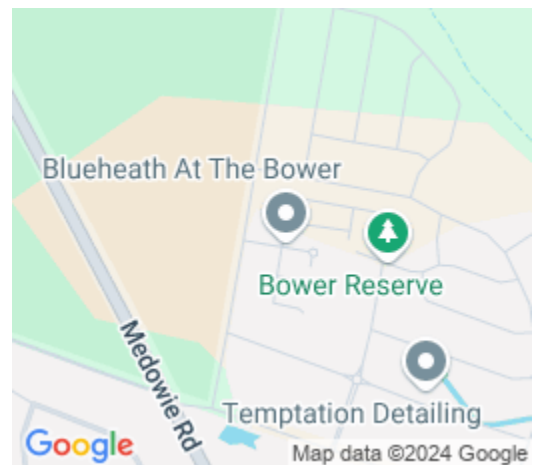

It's a common problem facing retirement: your family home has become too big to manage, while the time, effort and maintenance costs are stopping you from enjoying your retirement. There are now more retirement options than ever, yet they can be confusing.

What if you could easily become an expert on your future? To help understand all the options, Rachael Lane, Australia's top retirement guru, is coming to Port Stephens. Along with a panel of specialists, you will learn all the lifestyle, legal and financial aspects of retirement living, including strata apartments, granny flats, land lease communities, retirement villages, and home care. After a complimentary lunch, you can tour the
